- 4.7 Mediate ITI-HOLIDAY Germany for the customer flights or other services not included in the itinerary, so subject to the terms and conditions of the respective airline, insurance company or other provider, to which is reference specifically. Usually these ancillary services need to be full paid immediately, after booking by the customer.
- 4.8 Any costs for the money transfer will be charged to the customer.

5. Service and price changes

- 5.1 Changes or deviations of single travel services from the agreed content of the travel contract, which become necessary after conclusion the contract and not caused by tour operators against good faith, are only permitted if the changes or modifications are not substantial and do not affect the main overall of the booked tour. Eventual warranty claims remain unaffected insofar as the changed services are affected by faults. The tour operator is obliged the customer immediately of any changes or deviations on services to inform. If it is necessary ITI-HOLIDAY Germany will offer customers a free rebooking or a free cancellation.
- 5.2 Price changes of offered and confirmed prices are after statements of the travel contract may be subject to the following policies:
 - a) ITI-HOLIDAY Germany can only demand for a price change, which has occurred after conclusion of the contract increases in transportation costs, the charges for specific services, such as port or airport fees or a change to the current exchange rates for the related tour.
 - b) The change may be required only to the extent of how these increases per person or per seat impact and are provided between the contract and the agreed date of travel more than 3 months.
 - c) ITI-HOLIDAY Germany has the customer immediately after the knowledge circumstances justifying of the change in accordingly informing.
 - d) If the price increase of more than 5% the customer is authorized, free of charge withdraw from the contract or to require participation on an equivalent trip from the tour programs of the tour operator, if it is indeed to such an offer is able. If the price increase of more than 5% the customer is authorized, free of charge withdraw from the contract or to require participation on an equivalent trip from the tour programs of the tour operator, if there such an offer is available.
- 5.3 If on customer's request after booking, the tour changed (rebooking) it is to check by ITI-HOLIDAY Germany, whether the execution can be ensured. For rebooking requests ITI-HOLIDAY Germany can demand change fees.
- 5.4 With a change in the person of the participant, ITI-HOLIDAY Germany, authorized to the actual costs to calculate and to invoice, if they are not of such a change is contrary to reasons, which the new tour participants does not satisfy or preclude as participation in laws or government regulations of the tour requirements.

5.5 The scope of contractual achievements results from the service description and from the relating to these specifications in the travel confirmation. For additional agreements that change the scopes of contractual services we recommend in own interest the written form.

6. Cancellation by ITI-HOLIDAY Vietnam

6.1 ITI-HOLIDAY Vietnam can announce the contract after start of the journey if the traveler implementation of the Contract sustained despite a warning if it interferes or breaches the contract that the immediate abolition of the contract is justified.
